

SOCIETY

ONLY two more weeks of Lent, and Easter Sunday will be here to release Miss Society from the gray monotony of duty, when she may don once more her worldly garb and go forth to see, be seen, and conquer.

Many of the Richmond girls are out of town just now, and the void made in society by their absence is being filled by a number of attractive visitors who are being entertained here, there having been many little dinner parties given during the week, and every afternoon the tea garden in the palm room in the Jefferson is filled with charming groups. Receiving this week have been Mrs. Mayo, Miss Gordon, Miss Walker, Miss Harris, Miss Calman, Miss Tompkins, Miss Anne Royall, Miss Boykin, Miss Trigg, Mrs. Leake, Miss Leary, Miss Christian, Miss Bessie Watkins, Mrs. William Northrop, Miss Jennie Boyd, Miss Hickok, Miss Lathrop, Miss Ellen Ensign, Miss Nellie Boykin and many others.

Here and There in Society.
Mrs. George B. McAdams returned recently from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Robert Withers, at her home in Suffolk.

Miss Bernard Cooke is now visiting in Baltimore.

Mrs. James Alston Cabell left on Wednesday for New York, where she and Mr. Cabell are now spending two weeks very pleasantly.

Last week Miss Elizabeth Hotchkiss, accompanied by Miss Virginia Gordon, who has been her guest, left for Miss Gordon's home in Norfolk.

Miss Cora Younger and Miss Katharine Younger are still there, where they are greatly enjoying the pleasures of Norfolk society, being present at several delightful affairs of last week.

It was expected that Miss Lily Bemiss and Miss Charlotte Bemiss would land in New York on Wednesday last, after several months spent abroad. Mrs. E. L. Bemiss went to meet them.

Miss Zeyde Branch is returning to New York to-morrow, after her holiday spent here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr Branch.

Mrs. W. S. Murdock, of Mexico City, is visiting friends and relatives here. She will later go to visit her mother at Chelsea, King William county, being pleasantly remembered as Miss Frances Irma Willeroy.

Miss Huzzay is the guest of Miss Carolina Armistead.

Miss Sarah Farrar is another visitor.

ing girl from Erie, Pa. She has been with Mrs. Allen for the week.

Miss Frances Myers came back Tuesday from Fredericksburg, where she was entertained by Miss Flora Mason.

Miss Lettice Woodward and Miss Lucy Beveridge returned to Stuart Hall, after spending several days here, as did Miss Nannie McDaniel, who, during her stay in Richmond, was the guest of Miss Louise Miller, at her home, 516 West Grace Street.

Mrs. Russell Robinson left on Friday morning for her home in Nelson county, after spending several days in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Alsop, of Connecticut, with their little son, are here with Mr. Alsop's parents, at 511 Cathedral Place.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Tate Irvine, of Big Stone Gap, arrived in Charlottesville last Monday, where Mr. Irvine was called as a member of the board of visitors of the University of Virginia.

Mrs. Irvine will visit her mother, Mrs. E. O. Nolting, in Richmond, before her return to Big Stone Gap.

Mrs. Allen Patton, of Danville, is the guest of Mrs. James D. Patton.

Mrs. Frazier has Mrs. W. P. Tams, of Staunton, as her house guest.

Miss Sue Gray, of Cumberland county, is visiting Mrs. James Moncreaf.

Miss Minnie Ross is the guest of friends in Jacksonville, Fla., where she is having a delightful time.

Miss Charlotte Meade is spending a month near Red Sulphur Springs.

After a trip to Savannah, Atlanta, Charleston and other points in the South, Miss Lora Crump has returned to her home at the Chesterfield.

Martin—Constable.
William S. Constable announces the engagement of his daughter, Cornelia Blair, to Dr. William Read Martin, of Brownsburg, Rockbridge county, Va.

The marriage will take place the latter part of April at Hawthorne, the home of Miss Constable's aunt, Mrs. S. H. Hawes, in Henrico county.

Fitzgerald—Sutherland.
Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sutherland announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Bottrill, to John Fitzgerald, of this city, the ceremony to be celebrated in the home of the bride's parents in Washington on Tuesday, April 6.

The Sutherlands formerly made their home in Richmond, and the announcement of Miss Sutherland's engagement to a well-known Richmond man will be of much interest to their many friends here.

After a Northern trip, Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald will return to Richmond to reside and will be at home to their friends at 515 West Grace Street.

Women's Club.
On to-morrow afternoon, from 5 to 7 o'clock, the club will tender an informal reception to Mrs. Charles W. Elliot, wife of the retiring president of Harvard University. All members are urged to be present to meet this very attractive woman.

On Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock Miss Sarah MacConnell, of New York, will speak to the members on "Art in Relation to Life." Miss MacConnell is a pupil of the School of Applied Design and of the Metropolitan School of Art of New York. She has made quite a reputation as a designer of book covers, and is said to be a charming speaker.

She will spend several days in Richmond as the guest of Mrs. Malvern Patterson.

On Wednesday afternoon at half-past 4 the Literary Round Table will discuss John Fox, Jr., "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," under the direction of Miss Alice Dooley.

Recital Yesterday Afternoon.
Miss Sutherland, Miss Yates, Miss Sue Wright, Miss Penick, Miss Anderson, Miss Kratz, Miss Dansey, Miss Hancock, Miss Gwathmey and Mrs. Duesberry were among those taking part in the musical program given yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Miss Edith Aylett Cofer's studio.

One of the special features was the sight reading in concerted work. Refreshments were served and the studio was brightened with flowers and growing plants.

Skinner—Mercereau.
Miss Emma Helen Rhode Mercereau and Alfred Skinner, both of Fredericksburg, were married on Wednesday last by Rev. R. J. McBryde, D. D., in the bride's home on Doswell Field. Mr. and Mrs. Skinner will make their home in Fredericksburg.

Spencer—Chestnut.
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chestnut, of Montgomery, Ala., have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Leone, to Thomas Alexander Spencer, on Wednesday, April 7, at 8 o'clock. Mr. Spencer formerly lived in Richmond and is well known by society and military men of this State.

For Miss Tabb.
Miss Bettie Tabb, of Richmond, was the guest of honor last week at a beautiful entertainment given in Newport News by Mr. and Mrs. Larriek, when they invited a number of friends to meet her in their home, 559 Thirtieth Street.

Among their guests were Misses Josie Adams, Mabel Sanderson, Emma Wilson, Dorothy Druwright, Kate Richardson, Elsie Welkel, Beatrice Hicks, Bessie Tabb, William Wynne, John Bush, Royall Nunnally, Ellis Edmunds, Jerry Moore, Claude Coles, M. Bishop and Charlie Wynne. Mrs. Sanderson, Mrs. Wynne and Mr. and Mrs. Larriek were the chaperones.

Regular Meeting.
The Confederate Memorial Literary Society will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Confederate Museum, Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock.

Tea To-morrow.
The green tea to be given to-morrow evening at 5:15 in the rooms of the Y. W. C. A. building to the green team of the Rainbow Contest, promises to be a very attractive affair, as a program including many special features has been arranged by the committee in charge, including Mrs. Blair, Miss McCorkle, Miss Katherine Ricks, Miss Watson, Miss Edmundson, Miss Wilkinson, Miss Minnie Jones, Miss Fulton, Miss Ledger, Miss Oney, Miss Bannister, Miss Bickers, Miss Martin and Miss Lowry.

Miss MacConnell Here.
Miss MacConnell, of the staff of Everybody's Magazine, of New York, will talk before the Art Club of Richmond at 321 West at 4 o'clock, to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Her subject will be the "Fundamentals of Design." Miss MacConnell has studied at the Applied School of Design and the Metropolitan School of Art in New York. Her specialty being the designing of book covers, which study she will bring out in her talk to-morrow afternoon. Each club member has the privilege of bringing one friend.

Industrial Chapter.
The Industrial Chapter of All Saints' Church will be glad to see its friends at a display of fancy Easter novelties to be held in the parish hall of the church on Friday.

Richmond Girls in the South.
Misses Annie M. Blankingship and Alice Hobson, who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Burrell, of Richmond, S. C., are having a delightful time and are the recipients of much attention, several dinners, dances and card parties having been given in their honor. Before returning home they will visit Atlanta, Ga.

Parents' Rally.
There will be a parents' rally at Chimborazo School on Friday night. An interesting program has been arranged, and all parents connected with the school are invited to attend.

To Wed Winchester Man.
The announcement of the marriage of Miss Esther Milburn Wise, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Wise, of Cumberland, Md., to John P. Lamm, of Winchester, Va., which is to occur at the home of the bride's parents, 149 Maryland Avenue, Cumberland, has occasioned much interest. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Edward Hayes. After their wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. Lamm will reside in Winchester, where the groom is engaged in business.

Invitations Issued.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Glasgow have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Grace Ellen, to Edwin Carter Landis, of Detroit, Mich., the ceremony to take place at their home on White Street, Lexington, Tuesday afternoon, April 16, at 2 o'clock. Mr. Landis is an alumnus of Washington and Lee University.

In Honor of House Guest.
Mrs. A. O. Wrenn was hostess at an informal tea given last week at her home, in Colonial Avenue, Norfolk, Va., complimentary to Miss Sessions, of Baltimore, who is visiting her. Mrs. Wrenn and Miss Sessions received their guests in the drawing-room, which was prettily decorated in early spring flowers.

Mrs. Brewster poured those who served were Miss Josephine Brewster, Miss Margaret and Esther Wrenn, calling were Misses Jean Cooke, Emily Johnston, Katherine Dickson, Mary Minette, Frances Jenigan, Annette Kirby, Dorothy Kinkaid, Mary Hope, Virginia Gray, Carrie and Edna Voight, Mary Sharpe, Virginia Pollard, Emily Taylor, Marcelline Poe, of Baltimore, and Bessie Reid.

To Lecture in America.
Mrs. George Cornwallis West, remembered by old New Yorkers as Jennie Jerome, has signed a contract to appear in New York next November and lecture under the auspices of the League for Political Education. In a letter to a friend in America Mrs. West herself states that her subject will be "Women in Politics," but explains that she will not confine herself solely to that sphere.

Miss Toomey's Recital.
A recital was given on Friday evening by the pupils of Miss Ethel Toomey. Those taking part were: Misses Annie Longest, Claire Filler, Dallis Burrows, Freda Dietz, Florence Proffitt, Blanche and Alice Day, Florence and Zipporah Scherer, Katie and Rachel Fyle, Mary and Helen Gordon, Florence and Mary McNeill, Ethel and Margaret Ostergreen, Virginia and Ida Peyton, Mary

Lacy and Mabel Lumsden, Masters, Church on the corner of Tenth and Porter Streets, in Manchester.

Personal Mention.
Ellis Penn, of Danville, is spending the week-end in Richmond.

Mrs. John William Jones is making the week-end in Richmond.

(Continued on Third Page.)

CASTORIA.
The Kind You Have Always Bought.

Beware the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson

It is the only one that is Dr. J. C. Watson

It is the only one that is Dr. J. C. Watson

All-Silk
Faille Ribbon
5 1/4 inches; black, white, also the new
delicate shades.
25c yd.

Kaufmann & Co.

New
Military Belts
All colors of elastic,
with Virginia
seal and name on buckle.
48c

Tailored Gowns, Street Suits and Millinery

In An Extensive Presentation of Entirely New Styles.

This indeed promises to be a season in which Tailored Gowns are to be prominently favored. They possess such charm in their style features, the colorings, and the ornate trimmings that every woman will find fashion's preference for the tailored gown so pronounced that it will be indispensable in the spring wardrobe.

We wish to emphasize the fact that customers now have advantages for selection that will not be surpassed later in the season.

Tailored Worsted Suit

New Man-Tailored Suit of Striped Worsted, semi-fitting, three-button coat, satin lined throughout; new flare gored skirt; a splendid value at..... $15.00

Smart Spring Model

Very fashionable Suit of Black and White Shepherd's Check; the coat has that ideal hipless effect; collar and cuffs lined with black satin and lined throughout with fancy silk; the skirt is the new gored effect; special price..... $25.00

Tailored Serge Suit

A very dressy Suit of Fancy Striped French Serge, latest style pointed coat, collar and cuffs effectively trimmed in contrasting satin pipings, lined with the best quality peau de cygne; new flare skirt, with stitched bands; special price..... $30.00

Man-Tailored Serge Suit

An exquisite Suit of Wide Wale Serge, coat cut in that nobby three-button cutaway style, Persian collar and pocket flaps, lined with a very fine quality of peau de cygne; the skirt has that distinctive high girde feature so much in vogue this season; this is an exceptional value at..... $35.00

Imported Worsted Suit

This Handsome Three-Piece Suit of Imported Worsteds is one of the smartest models shown this season. Dress has girde sash and tie of satin; three-button cutaway coat, all silk lined, with collar, cuffs and pocket flaps trimmed in satin and buttons to match. $40.00

Distinguished Millinery

Distinguished by originality—by the inclusion of every new fashion approved by milliners of recognized authority.

From the many ladies who visited our Millinery Salon during the opening days the comments were most flattering.

To-morrow there will be new models shown in Dress, Carriage and Street Hats, combining the ideas of our own artists and foreign millinery thought.

Special Sale of Trimmed Hats

Special attention is directed to the showing this week of the popular price hats, $4.98. These hats are individual styles—no two alike; made of horsehair, chip, rustic, satin and lobster braids, in these most popular shapes: Billy Burke, Mushroom, Poke, Tub and Turbans. The trimmings are of French flowers, wings, quills, ribbon and velvet. For the further popularizing of our medium price millinery department, this gives you an exclusive style hat at..... $4.98

Gloves for Spring

Glove making brought to absolute perfection—that is to be seen in the beautiful new stocks now ready. Glove values without a rival—that is once more a characteristic of our Glove Store.

$1.69 for elbow length Glaze French Kid Gloves, in black, tan, brown and ox- blood. These are our own importa- tion, sold at the reg- ular price of $2.50. Special sale, $1.69.	$1.50 for Ladies' Two- Clasp Glaze Gloves of soft French kid, Paris point stitching, in black, white and all the newest shades for spring. Trefousse's make; special, $1.50.	$1.00 for Ladies' Two- Clasp Spring Weight French Kid Gloves, Paris point stitching, in black, white and all the new leading shades; also Chamois Gloves, in white and natural. This is our leader; special, $1.00.
---	---	--

Parasols for Easter

Altogether charming are the Parasols this Spring. Long Directoire handles, plain and carved, to match the covers; 8, 10 and 16 brass ribs, with tips to correspond. Something different and out of the ordinary.

$1.98 Coaching Parasol of Taffeta Silk, in all colors, long directoire handles, colored to match; ten-rib paragon frame.	$2.98 A choice selection of Fancy Border Silk Parasols, plain and carved handles of box and teakwood; ten-rib brass frame, with tip to correspond.
---	---

A very extensive assortment of high-grade Parasols, in plain colors, striped polka dot, Dresden borders and all-over Persian; a beautiful line of plain and carved handles, brass paragon frames and brass tip.

Prices from $2.25 to $10.

PATRICIAN
Shoe for Women

The Clever
Woman knows how to have the World
at her feet

3.50
and 4.00
The World Over

Fit, Style and Service

A Happy Combination.

The one indispensable thing about Shoes is that they must fit. It seems a simple thing to expect, but it is difficult to obtain. No woman can enjoy wearing shoes unless they are comfortable. And no shoes can be comfortable unless they fit. But as the ordinary ready-made shoe is constructed to-day it can't fit as it should around the waist of the foot.

Patrician is made with the high arch supporting feature, producing a snug fit through the waist and leaving ample toe room, which adds comfort as well as beauty to the foot.

We carry a most complete stock of the newest creations for spring and summer comfort.

Combinations in perfect keeping with your latest gowns.

Low Cuts $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00.

Seymour Sytle, 11 West Broad Street

Dunlop Flour

IS NOT ORDINARY

It is extraordinary.

Clean and Pure
and White.

And its cost is small.

TRY IT TO-DAY.

Don't accept a substitute.

INSIST.

Castor Oil in Powder
DANIEL LEE'S TASTELESS LAXATIVE IN ANY FORM
IN BOTTLE OR BOX
BEST AND SAFEST
LAXATIVE KNOWN
SOLD AT ALL DRUGGISTS

nia Jerome, has signed a contract to appear in New York next November and lecture under the auspices of the League for Political Education. In a letter to a friend in America Mrs. West herself states that her subject will be "Women in Politics," but explains that she will not confine herself solely to that sphere.

Miss Toomey's Recital.
A recital was given on Friday evening by the pupils of Miss Ethel Toomey. Those taking part were: Misses Annie Longest, Claire Filler, Dallis Burrows, Freda Dietz, Florence Proffitt, Blanche and Alice Day, Florence and Zipporah Scherer, Katie and Rachel Fyle, Mary and Helen Gordon, Florence and Mary McNeill, Ethel and Margaret Ostergreen, Virginia and Ida Peyton, Mary

Lacy and Mabel Lumsden; Masters, Church on the corner of Tenth and Porter Streets, in Manchester.
Personal Mention.
Ellis Penn, of Danville, is spending the week-end in Richmond.
Mrs. John William Jones is making the week-end in Richmond.
(Continued on Third Page.)
CASTORIA.
The Kind You Have Always Bought.
Beware the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson
It is the only one that is Dr. J. C. Watson